

Interesting Camel Facts

Draw a line between the clues on the left to the matching answers.

What month is the Alice Springs Camel Cup?	50
Where are the last wild camel herds in the world?	Dromedary
How many years can camels live for?	Calf
How tall do camels grow?	30-40kgs
Where did the original camel herds come from?	Close them
How many types of camels are there?	Wiper - like a windscreen wiper
Which type of camel has only one hump?	100
What camels are the most common in Australia?	Fur
What is a baby camel called?	Spit at you
How heavy is a baby camel when it is born?	Shrinks
What is their nickname?	Arabia
Why do they have this particular nickname?	Bull
What is a female camel called?	Ships of the desert
What country uses camel wool for clothing and rugs?	Both legs on 1 side move as one
What animal is closely related to the camel?	Cow
What happens to the hump if the camel is hungry?	Protection from sand and dust
What is their third eyelid used for?	July
Why do they have long curly eye lashes?	Dromedaries
What is a male camel called?	Two metres
What is inside their ears?	Central Australia
What can they do with their nostrils?	Middle East
If a camel doesn't like you, what will it do?	Llama
If a camel is really thirsty, how many litres of water can it drink in ten minutes?	Two